NOTES

- 75 Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, VII, 110 and Young, op.cit., 520 are records of a Henry Strickler, private in the First Class of Meyer's company, who paid fines aggregating £30 in the period 1777-1780. Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, VII, 97 and 6th Series, II, 573 are records of one Henry Strickler, miller, private in Comfort's company at least in 1782. Ibid., 484, 485, 652, 653 are records of two Henry Stricklers who were privates in Comfort's company in 1780 and 1781. Ibid., 668, 668 are records of three Henry Stricklers who were privates in Comfort's company at the end of the year 1782. Ibid., 672, 673 are records of four Henry Stricklers who were privates in Comfort's company in 1782, certainly including the miller.

Young, op.cit., 193 lists two Henry Stricklers who were non-jurors in 1781 (see note 60). Ibid., 42, 45, 46, two who were members of the Eighth Class of inhabitants of Hellam Township (see note 59). Ibid., 214, two who were fined as non-associators in 1777 (see note 53), including the one who was in Walls's company, supra.

The fact that some of these are termed 'Henry Strickler, Junior' is of little value. The distinction was formerly one of age rather than of relationship, consequently all Henry Stricklers except the oldest would be 'Junior'.

Welsh family history

Henry Welsh was commissioned Second Lieutenant Captain Reinekers' Company, York Co. Militia 3d. Battalion. Commanded by Richard McAllister Aug. 9, 1776.

Also commissioned Justice of Peace Oct. 29, 1795 of the township of Heidelberg, which included Hanover, York Co. Penna. by Govner Mifflin. Also first Post Master of Hanover, Pa. 1795. His first quarterly report to Post Master General Chas. Burwell was $1.75 (one dollar and seventy five cents)

Was a Tanner by trade. Tanery and residence located where Hanover Glove Factory, Exchange Place now is (1939) rear of Baltimore and Frederick Sts. first alleys from Public Square. also distiller of Plain and fancy whiskeys. Also manufactured brick for buildings and otherwise

In fact if there was anything to do why Henry Welsh did it. He also was an Inn Keeper on corner of Square & Broadway, now Hotel Hanover.

Benjamin Welsh, son of Henry was commissioned Justice of Peace by Govner Geo. Wolf for the township of Heidelberg & Mannheim and Hanover Nov. 27, 1835. He was a Tanner by trade also and lived and tanned at his father's Tanery after his father's death. Four of his children were born here Amelia Thomas, Henry D. Welsh, Agnes C. Spangler, Geo. W. Welsh, the other children were born on the same lot of ground in a house later owned by Andrew Eckert which was destroyed to open West Walnut St. the last owner was David Mc.G. Newcomer.

Benjamin Welsh was Second Sergeant of Capt. F. Metzger's Company of Volunteers of Hanover, Pa. in 1814.

This company left (in company with Capt. Bair's company) Hanover on Sunday morning Aug. 28, 1814 on foot, reached Baltimore on Tuesday following about 9 o'clock A.M. Sunday Sept. 11. They marched to North Point next day the 12 they engaged in the Battle of North Point, the British General Ross being killed ended the attack on Baltimore and bombardment of Fort Mchenry under General Cockburn the British army embarked on Cockburns ships and sailed away so ending the attack.

I have in my possession a black silk cockade made by Elizabeth Myers, Benjamin Welsh's sweetheart which he wore on the side of his hat. This was his only uniform (Benn & Lizzy married later on) (Note) There is buried in the old Lutheran Graveyard known as the Winebrenner Graveyard North of Hanover about one mile, a Henry Welsh, who died Jan. 20, 1799 age 28 years who he was I could never find out. No record of any kind. He had a small marble tombstone, the last time I saw it it was broken to pieces.

Jacob Winteroth and wife Barbara names appear as witnesses to a number of baptisms of children born of other parents, not Winteroths'.

All of the above are from Christ Reformed Church records near Littlestown. I had access to these records dated from Sept. 5, 1776 to May 1, 1871 (in the Public Library, Hanover, Pa.)

Mrs. Victor Luttera, Vice Parent of Gettysburg Chapter, D.A.R., informed me that Johannes Adam Winterode and wife Maria had a son named John and a son named Jacob.

My deductions:

Jacob Winteroth and wife Barbara were my great grandfather and grandmother. Jacob Winterode and wife Susanna was my grandfather and grandmother.

"Jacob Rudisill (the judge of York County, who prepared my grandfather Beard's apprenticeship indenture on the 17th day of October, 1791) was commissioned an associate Judge of York County on the 17th day of August, 1791. He continued a judge until the time of his death. He died in Petersburg, Adams County in the house of Jacob Winterode on the 6th day of December, 1800." (Rupp's History of Lancaster & York Counties, 1844).

I find in the court house at Gettysburg records, there was a Petersburg (now Littlestown) in Germany Township, also York Springs, Adams County was named Petersburg.

Children of my great grandfather, Jacob Winteroth and wife Barbara: Adam Jr., eldest son, Jacob, Henry, John, Catharine married Frederick Becher, Barbara intermarried with Samuel Becher, Margaret and Elizabeth. They spelled their name Winterode.

My great grandfather kept a hotel on his farm at the now Palmer farm, one mile southwest of Littlestown, Pa., on the Taneytown road, the farm contained 173 acres when it was taken over by his son, Adam Jr. This hotel was along the highway to Frederick, Maryland, and the south and west, at that time. My grandfather Jacob bought twenty four acres for 125 pounds from his brother Adam Jr., on the 27th of June, 1801. My grandfather was a blacksmith by trade, he also kept the hotel. He was born about 1782 on the old homestead and died about 1854. No accurate record of his age. He was married twice. The children of his first wife were as follows:

Born to Jacob Winterode and wife Susanna on November 1, 1822 a son Ephraim, baptized Febr. 9, 1823. (Christ Church Records). I refer to date of birth of Ephraim because his tombstone at Christ Church reads born Nov. 1, 1824, the same year my mother was born. He died May 29, 1893. Ephraim was married, lived and died near Silver Run, Maryland. He has a very large number of descendants in this section. A son of Ephraim named Anos went to Texas when a young man and was never heard from after leaving his home. He never returned home.

Abigail Margaret, my mother, married Charles Beard, my father, at Hanover, Pa. Mother was born November 13, 1824, died April 21, 1892.

Cecelia, born October 16 1825, married James Keefer, Littlestown, Pa.

Born to Jacob Winterode and wife Susanna on May 6, 1830 a son Rufus Henry, baptized May 19 1831. Witness: Nathaniel Winterode. (Christ Church Records). Grandmother died several days after Rufus Henry was born. Grandfather married again and had the following children from his second wife:

Selena, born March 28, 1834, married Peter Greenholtz, Littlestown, Pa.

Eliza, married Edward Staley (a miller by occupation) Littlestown, Pa.

Jacob Jackson, (married three times) his first wife's name was Strausbaugh, whom he married at Hanover, Pa., and he had two children from this union, Emma and Ida. He was later divorced and moved to Bellefountain, Ohio when he married again. After the death of his second wife he married the third time, a number of children were born at Bellefountain, Ohio.

Hamilton, married and lived at Littlestown, Pa.

Julian and David, twins, Julian married David Newman, Two Taverns, Adams Co., Pa. I think David died when a young man.

Louisa, the youngest child born Nov. 25, 1849 married Frank Krehbs, Frederick, Md.

Grandmother Susanna Wintrode, whose maiden name was Crouse was born and raised in Littlestown, Pa. (There are numerous Crouses living in Littlestown at the present time.) She had the four children already mentioned. She died when my mother was only six years old. No accurate record of her age, born about 1795, died in 1830, buried at Christ Church near Littlestown, Pa. After grandfather died he was buried at Christ Church by the side of Grandmother. They never had tombstones and I cannot locate the spot where they are buried. It was somewhere in front of the main entrance to the church.

Rufus Henry Winterode from grandfather's first wife could not get along with his stepmother and when a boy left home and went west. He was never heard from after leaving home. The four children born from grandfather's first wife all left home early in life on account of their stepmother. Grandfather's second wife was Eliza Menchy, and she was only 19 years old when she married grandfather who was then 50 years old. After grandfather died his second wife married Andrew Hahn, Granny Hahn and Andrew Hahn are both buried at Littlestown, Pa. Granny Hahn born Dec. 15, 1813, died Sept. 13, 1901.

My former records of the Winteroth's, I got from relatives, some from my mother before she died. What I got from my mother were accurate but I found them so inaccurate as a whole that I resumed my search and submit these records as the result.

There is a recent persistent rumor that there is a large inheritance coming to the heirs of Jacob Wintrode through an Adam Wintrode's estate, long deceased.

Western Wintrode's have been in this locality looking up the Wintrode kin at different times. About 1924 I received a post card mailed on a Penna. R.R. train between Lancaster and Philadelphia signed by Lathan Wintrode, Port Podge, Iowa, stating he has in his possession, leases, deeds, wills, monies deposited, that I should meet him at a certain Hotel in Chester, Pa., at a certain time and date. I paid no attention to it because I felt it was a fake. Several months later he visited the Wintrode's in Hanover but I did not go to see him. Neither did he call to see me.

My dear Miss Ferguson
Genealogist, Penna. State Library
Harrisburg, Pa.

I am sending you my records of the Winterode family, just completed. Kindly do not divulge the name of Rufus Henry referred to in this report, to any inquiry from Western Winterodes until I see you or until you hear from me again. I believe this man Nathan Winterode has the papers he claims to have, but he cannot connect his relationship. He refused to show the papers to any person & I feel that he is an imposter. No living relative in this locality know the real name of the boy who left home & went west, on account of his stepmother, until I found it in Christ Reformed church records last week. My belief is that Grandfather's brother, Adam Jr.'s deeds and Grandfather's family records & deeds disappeared about that time, either through Rufus Henry or Jacob Jackson, and I am going to try to clear up the mystery. It looks like my Grandparents were buried like paupers. My Mother told me he owned the farm and hotel. He lived and died there. She also told me that none of the children of my Grandfather's first wife ever received any inheritance or anything from his estate after his death.

The amount of the administrators bond indicates that it only covered personal property, this I was told by a clerk in the Register of Wills office at Gettysburg.

The only Winterode in the east that knew anything about these papers & whom Nathan Winterode visited and spent weeks with at his home, is dead. He died less than a year ago. This man's son sent word to me he would like to see me at my office on Saturday March 28th. This is the first time any Winterode would consent to see me about this matter. I believe I am on the trail of clearing up an affair that occurred almost one hundred years ago. The present owner of the farm holds several deeds to it, but I understand not that far back. There are no other records at Gettysburg to show how this farm was transferred.

There is no intrinsic value to these papers at this date, but it would give me a thrill to solve the mystery.

Yours truly,

Fayette H. Beard

Hanover, Pa. March 20, 1931.

After considerable thought of all the circumstances and the fact that there are only two papers filed in the Adams County Court House at Cottysburg, in the settlement of Grandfather Wintrode's estate and those papers would indicate that they were for personal property only.

Depending on tradition & circumstances only, I append the following article (My Mother Abigail was born in the year 1824) I have a faint recollection of being told that she was born in Littlestown in a house located on Frederick Street, later owned by the Blocker's, also that none of the children ever received any money or anything from home after the death of their father.

The Recognizance states that Adam Wintrode Jr., "indebted to Jacob & other children, to each of them in the sum of one hundred & fifty pounds". Later Adam Jr. sold to Jacob a tract containing twenty four acres for one hundred and twenty five pounds not stating that it was the tract that the hotel stood on, surely it could not have been, as each of the children received a like amount.

My belief is that Adam Jr. retained for himself the hotel site and continued to run the hotel up until the time of his death in 1817, and probably his widow continued to run it until after Aunt Cecelia was born in 1825. I think Aunt Cecelia was born in the same house my Mother was born in.

There is no doubt in my mind that Grandfather did run the hotel sometime after this period & up until the time of his death. How he secured ownership and how it was disposed of is the mystery. How was Adam Jr.'s affairs settled without any court house records? Some of Grandfather's children from his second wife claimed they were born in the hotel. Then again tradition has it that Adam died somewhere in the West and his body was brought home & buried at Christ Church.

I visited my uncle Jacob Jackson Wintrode at Bellefontain, Ohio, in the summer of 1923, on my way home from the World's Fair at Chicago. When I greeted him I called him uncle Jackson, (everybody called him Jackson, when he lived in Hanover). He called me aside and said, don't call me uncle Jackson, nobody knows me by that name out here, call me Uncle Jacob. Fortunately I don't think any of his children heard me call him Uncle Jackson. That night when he took me to the spare room, there was in the room an old style cowhide trunk.

He said to me "Fayette I had that trunk when I lived with your Mother in Hanover, it has a false bottom, and between the bottoms are some valuable papers. I brought them with me from my old home. My family don't know anything about them." I did not ask him any questions, and he did not tell me any more about them. The above article is appended, to help clear up the Wintrode inheritance mystery.

More tombstone records of burials at Chrlich Church:

"John Adam Wintroth Born Dec.20,1739; Died Aug.30,1813".
He probably was the husband of Anna Maria and a brother of Jacob Winderoth husband of Anna Barbara.

"John Jacob Wintroth Died June 28, 1855 Age 67 years."
He probably was a son of John Adam Wintroth senior, and husband of Elizabeth.

"Elizabeth wife of J. J. Wintrode Died Apr.25,1844."
Probably the wife of the above John Jacob.

"John Wintrode of Jacob Died June 29, 1830."
Probably my Grandfather's brother.

"Anna Maria Wintroth Born Jan.,1753; Died Oct.7,1807."
She may have been a daughter of John Adam, senior, & his wife, Anna Maria. Not likely his wife Anna Maria. I cannot connect the parentage of Samuel Wintrode husband of Abigail who died July 5, 1829.

"Samuel Wintrode Died March 27, 1870."
(He was a school teacher). Probably a son of Samuel Wintrode, senior.

CONNECTIONS TO MY RECORDS OF THE WINTEROTH FAMILY.

BY Dr. FAYETTE H. BEARD,
HANOVER, PA., March 29, 1931.

I just returned from having a long conversation with my First Cousin, Mary Reofer Batters, Littlestown, Pa. She knows more about the Winterodes than any other living descendant, of my Grandfather's family.

She informed me that Grandfather had two brothers, one named Johannes and one named George. Also, two sisters, one named Rachael and the other name she cannot recall. (I remember hearing my Mother talk about Aunt Rachael).

I therefore change my deductions to read as follows:

Johannes Jacob Winteroth and Wife Barbara were my Great Great Grandparents.

Jacob Winteroth and wife Elizabeth were my Great Grandparents.

Jacob Winterode and wife Susanna were my Grandparents.

My Great Grandfather, Jacob Winteroth's children, were as follows:- Johannes and Elizabeth, Twins, born March 9 1789. Jacob (my Grandfather) born October 9, 1791. Rachael born December 1, 1795. George, no record, supposed to have had five daughters and three sons, lived in the vicinity of Littlestown.

My Great Grandfather and Grandfather were both blacksmiths. Grandfather, Jacob, died in 1854, this would make his age about 65 years. (Mrs. Batters says that was about his age).

The remaining portions of my records are correct.

MARY COPPOCK'S RELATION

TO THE

WINTEROOTH FAMILY

BY

DR. PAULINE HENRY BEARD
HANOVER, PA., APRIL 7, 1931.

The narrative as told to me, is as follows:

Adam Winterode married Mary Coppock a daughter of Bartholomew Coppock, a large realty holder in the vicinity of Philadelphia, Pa., and other localities. He leased his holdings for a long period, on a ground rental basis. The leases have expired and the lands revert back to his heirs.

It is claimed that Mary Coppock a daughter of Bartholomew Coppock was stolen by the Indians, and sold to Adam Winterode (or his father) who lived in a section of what is now Adams County Pennsylvania.

The descendants of Marmaduke Coate of near Philadelphia claim that Marmaduke Coate bought Mary Coppock, a white girl from the Indians and married her.

During the French and Indian war of 1755-58 and later, the barriers of the South Mountain shielded the early frontier settlers from the savage incursions from the West. Frequently the savages from the East, particularly the Delaware Indians, whose chief was Tedyuscung, invaded this section. They murdered or carried captive defenseless families away and burned their homes. Some of these Indians spoke English as well as the settlers could speak it.

It is possible that a band of these Indians captured Mary Coppock a white girl, in the vicinity of Philadelphia and brought her along with them, and sold her to Adam Winterode, and afterwards he married her.

(Read the capture of Richard Bard, family and others by the Indians in 1758. A thrilling story appearing on page 62, Sherman Days Historical collections of the state of Pennsylvania, published in 1843.

Bard lived in this section and his affidavit, made at York, Pa., May 12, 1758, was signed Richard Baird. His fathers name was Archibald Board, according to history.) F.H.B.

THE WINTEROTH FAMILYRECAPITULATIONBy DR. FANNETTE HENRY BEARD

1. Johannes Jacob Winteroth born April 20, 1735, Died February 3, 1797. Was my Great Great Grandfather.
2. Johannes Adam Winteroth born December 20, 1739, Died August 30, 1813 was a brother of above Johannes Jacob Winteroth.
3. Anna Marie Winteroth born January - 1753, Died October 7, 1807, may have been a daughter of Johannes Adam Winteroth and wife Marie. Not likely his wife Anna Marie.
4. John Adam Winteroth born November 14, 1763, Died May 26, 1817, was a son of Johannes Jacob Winteroth, and a brother of my Great Grandfather Jacob. Also husband of Mary _____?
5. Jacob Winteroth, Died January 28 1835, age 67 years was a son of Johannes Jacob Winteroth. (My Great Grandfather).
6. Elizabeth wife of J. J. Winteroth, Died April 25, 1844, the wife of above Jacob. (My Great Grandmother).
7. John Winteroth of Jacob, Died June 29 1830. My Great Grandfather's brother and father of Samuel Winteroth, husband of Abigail Winteroth, who Died July 5, 1829.
8. Samuel Winterode, Died March 27, 1870. (He was a school teacher) probably a son of above Samuel.

Today, Rev. M. J. Roth, Hanover, Pa., (a German Scholar) and myself went over the original Christ Church records. He translated them from German script, and we found my former records correct, except the following correction and addition.

Born to Adam Winteroth and wife Marie, January 29, 1791, a daughter Desintha, should read Adam Klintoroth and wife ---.

Born to John Winteroth and wife Catharine, January 22, 1807, a son Samuel, Baptized August 9, 1807. He was the son of my Great Grandfather's brother, John.

We were searching for the Maiden Name of Adam Winteroth's wife Mary. There are no marriages recorded.

Adam signed his name Winterode.

WHO DID HE MARRY, MARY -----?

Who IS NATHAN WINTERODE?

John Winteroth and Wife Catharine, had a son, also named Samuel, born Jan. 22, 1807. (Christ Church Records.) This John probably was a son of John Adam Winteroth, Senior.

Dosintha, born Jan. 29, 1791.
